BChD (UK), MFGDP(UK)RCS, Dip ConSed, Dip ImpDent

Information for Patients

Mark graduated from Leeds Dental School in 1992.

He was awarded the prize for 'Most Distinguished Student in Final Year.' Following three years hospital training, Mark spent 2 years working in practice in London and Buckinghamshire before returning to his Geordie roots in the North East.

Whilst working at a large specialist practice in Teesside, Mark developed a special interest in dental sedation and dental implants. In 1999 Mark achieved the Diploma in Conscious Sedation and Pain control in dentistry, and became a sedation trainer for the Northern region.

Mark passed the examination to be accepted as a member of the Royal College of Surgeons Faculty of General Dental Practitioners, MFGDP(UK) RCS, in 2006, and completed the Diploma in implant dentistry from Warwick University in 2011.

Mark has also attended numerous courses on dental Implants and Cosmetic dentistry. Mark has recently been certified as an Invisalign provider for straightening teeth.

Outside of work, Mark is a family man, spending as much time as he can with his wife, two teenage daughters and their new Cockapoo puppy, Lola.

As a teenager Mark was a national standard swimmer, and currently is a keen triathlete. He has recently completed 2 full-distance Ironman events in Germany and Austria. Closer to home he competes in swim-run Breca events.
